TAPESTRY

Woven piece of fabric in the patterns of the past

Sprawls across this place where I now lie.

Orange of October threaded in the needle

With Marigolds, remembering-

I mean to put these on the fringe.

A kind of design I sew carefully in

Meshes with colors I choose to keep bright.

Spinning myself into this choice of cloth-

Weaving & dealing,

Creating & stitching,

I sew as I go.

AMARGOSA DAYS PARADE APRIL 28TH

You don't have to be an intergalactic alien or superhero to be in the parade. Bring your dog, your cat, ride a bike or trike, wear a costume if you want. If you have a child that's too shy, walk with them or carry them. All are welcome. Meet at the corner of Farm & School Road @ 8:30 for line-up.

WAS THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS AN APRIL FOOLS' JOKE?

It is a bit ironic that the Christian celebration of the resurrection of Jesus happens to fall on April Fools' Day this year. Either Jesus was raised from the dead or he was not. If he was not, then the belief in his resurrection was the greatest conspiracy ever accomplished. But if he was, then that changes everything.

Historical testimony records that the majority of the apostles of Jesus suffered martyrdom for their faith including Peter, James, and Paul. They knew that either the resurrection was true or that it was a lie. As Gary Habermas and Michael Licona note in their book The Case for the Resurrection of Jesus, "liars make poor martyrs." And who would die for what they knew was a lie? The original disciples knew whether Jesus was really raised from the dead or not. Yet none of them abandoned the faith in the face of death.

Only an encounter with the risen Christ on the road to Damascus could have changed the Apostle Paul. How can we explain the origin of the letters of Paul and his conversion apart from the truth of the Christian faith? What would have led a Pharisee who persecuted the church to become a follower of Christ and the greatest spokesman for him? What would convince James, the brother of Jesus, who formerly doubted, to believe in him if Jesus was not raised from the dead? What caused the disciples to go from hiding from the authorities in fear to boldly proclaiming that Christ had been raised from the dead if they did not believe that Christ had been raised from the dead?

The empty tomb of Jesus was never disputed by the enemies of Christianity. But how could the body have been stolen with a detachment of soldiers guarding it? The disciples had been scattered after believing that Jesus had been defeated through crucifixion. They had no incentive to invent the story of the resurrection since it would have meant only suffering and persecution from the Jewish and Roman authorities. No other explanation but the resurrection of Jesus can account for all the facts including the empty tomb, the conversion of the skeptic James, the conversion of the persecutor Paul, the transformation of the disciples after claiming to see the risen Christ, the spread of Christianity in the face of persecution, the existence and preservation of the Bible, the fulfillment of biblical prophecy, and the millions of testimonies of those who have been changed by the work of the Holy Spirit. You can investigate the evidence for yourself at coldcasechristianity.com
