Serving the Community

The Senior Center continues to deliver meals and hopes we can open the Center soon. We all miss seeing one another and miss the activities that were provided.

Commodities are still being delivered the second Monday of the month with drive thru pick-up. We know that you may be receiving some items that you don't use, PLEASE DON'T THROW THEM AWAY! There are plenty of people in need, find someone that can use the items or bring them back so we can put them in a food bank.

Pre-Veterans Day cemetery clean-up on Saturday, Nov. 7th, 9:00 AM until we run out of coffee.

VFW is now open. Contact Collette Johnson for hours, and to help tend bar.

An email from VITALANT, formerly United Blood Services.

We appreciate your efforts in getting the Town to participate in the Blood Drive.

- * We started with 8 appointments
- * We had 1 same day cancellation
- * We had 4 walk-ins
- * We had a total of 11 participants
- * 3 were first time donors
- * 4 were not able to give blood
- * 7 successful donors

For a total of 7 blood donations collected. With your support and encouragement, we will be able to impact the lives of up to 21 hospital patients.

Can you think of anything we could have done differently to encourage more participants? Were there any factors that might have influenced not having more walk-ins?

We want to make sure that we are doing everything we can to support our communities hosting blood drives! Your feedback is greatly appreciated!!

Thank you for your support!!

Monthly Swap Meet every 3rd Saturday at the "My Own" Trailer Park Club House across the street from Longstreet Casino. Next date for Swap Meet will be October 17, 2020. Plenty of parking and space available to all who want to participate. If you know of vendors who want to join they will be welcome.
Contact Deb Mendyk, 702-236-7509.

Help with the Newsletter is needed. We volunteers are doing our best to help keep the Community informed, but many residents are left out. We would like someone to help us translate the Newsletter in Spanish to be posted at Ruby's, Martell's, and the Post Office. If you can help contact Leslie at the Library, or Lab at 775-372-1337. Thank you.
