A BIG THANK YOU TO BRUCE JENSEN

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to outgoing Chief Bruce Jensen for his unwavering dedication and exceptional service over the past seven years at the Amargosa Valley Volunteer Fire Department. His commitment, expertise, and tireless efforts have been instrumental in ensuring the safety and well-being of our community. Bruce's selfless contributions have left an indelible mark, and we are immensely grateful for his leadership and passion in protecting our neighbors and properties. As he embarks on new waters, we wish him continued success and fulfillment. Thank you, Bruce, for your invaluable service and profound impact on our fire department and the Amargosa Valley community. We hope the oceans ahead of you are full of adventure.

Spring is here - time to check your tire pressures in the afternoon when they are heated up to avoid blowouts.

Please leave plenty of water out for your pets.

HISTORIC WOODEN WAGON LOST IN FIRE

Just after midnight on April 4, DVNP park rangers responded to a reported fire, which was behind the Borax Museum. The fire destroyed a historic wooden wagon that was used in the 1890s to transport borax out of Death Valley. 'Old Dinah,' the steam engine that pulled the wagon, was adjacent to the fire but escaped significant damage. Old Dinah was in use just after the famous Twenty Mule Team era. Only five wagon sets were constructed and used during the Twenty Mule Team era from 1883 to 1898. Of those only three are currently relatively intact. This includes a set on display at the U.S. Borax Company headquarters in Boron, California. This set was used in the television series "Death Valley Days." Within Death Valley National Park the set of wagons at Harmony Borax Works were not involved in the fire. The Harmony wagons were used in the national tours to promote the sales of Borax. The Harmony wagons also have "integrity of fabric and setting", this means they have had the fewest alterations and most original material of any existing Twenty Mules Team wagons.

NEVADANS HAVE A WINNING ALTERNATIVE TO DC-ANNOINTED CANDIDATES AND SINGLE-ISSUE CANDIDATES

The Associated Press

"I believe in the right to life, the right of free speech, the right to bear arms," Grady said.

DAILY CALLER

"Tony Grady — warrior, commander, conservative."

JACKY ROSEN IS BEATABLE

- Absentee Jacky Rosen has abandoned Nevadans. She has refused to meet with local law enforcement officials and has left rural and frontier Nevada to fend for itself against the Federal Government.
- Due to her failed leadership, only 38% of Nevada voters approve of the job she's doing in the U.S. Senate.
- In the Senate, Rosen has served as a rubber stamp for the deeply unpopular Joe Biden, voting with his agenda more than 92% of the time.
- She is ideologically to the Left of Nevada's electorate with 45% calling her a Liberal.
- Jacky Rosen is vulnerable, with a generic GOP candidate beating her 48%-46% in initial polling. That said, a generic Republican simply won't cut it in 2024.

TONY IS THE ONLY ONE FOR THE JOB

- "Tony Grady has the broad command experience that would make him an immediate leader in the Senate."
- Joe W. Brown, former Republican National Committeeman for Nevada
- In addition to his work on the T-1A trainer and his command of the B-2 Stealth Bomber squadron during his 20-year career in the Air Force, Tony also worked in the Pentagon where he helped develop the President's budget.
- During House and Senate Armed Services Committee meetings, Tony was responsible for escorting and briefing the generals on the Air Force's bomber program.

TONY IS THE GRASSROOTS CANDIDATE

- Tony's first time as a candidate in 2022 saw him winning 13 of Nevada's 17 counties, losing by less than 6 points to an entrenched candidate.
- In direct contrast to those running to be Washington D.C.'s pick, Tony is crisscrossing the state and meeting voters from every county because that's what it will take to defeat Jacky Rosen.

Tony Grady is the ONLY candidate with the broad skill set necessary to serve in the Senate. He is the only candidate with a firm grasp on the military strategy, foreign policy, and economic instruments of power that make America wield.

To ensure Republicans have the candidate needed to defeat Jacky Rosen in 2024, we need your help. Visit GradyForNevada.com today to make an investment in Tony's campaign.
