FROM THE LIBRARY

It has been a challenging year for the valley residents in many ways. Unfortunately, due to their unexpected deaths, the Library has had to say goodbye to several long-standing patrons this year. The Library staff and Board of Trustees would like to express our deepest sympathies to the families and friends of Bruce Bowker, Jim Bell, and Ella Cady.

Both Bruce and Jim were avid readers with various interests, and we will miss their presence in our small library. Claudia asked that friends and family donate to a selection of charities instead of flowers; the library is one of the chosen places, and we thank those who contributed in Bruce's name.

Because of COVID-19, Jim's brother Donald decided to contribute to our library in Jim's name in place of a funeral or a mass gathering of people. Such a gesture was a surprise to us, and we would like to thank him for thinking of us.

I would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to Randy Kadramus for the fine work he did on cleaning out the well on My Parent's property. When he was finished, we had better water pressure than we've seen for at least 7 years.

Thank you Randy,
Dennis and Maureen Ames

Cemetery Clean Up

On November 7th the American Legion will be hosting a clean-up of tumbleweeds and trash from our cemetery to prepare for Veterans Day from 9:00am until we run out of coffee. The average age of last year's volunteers was close to 80, so don't feel like you need to be overly energetic to help out. Ken Gary did the most work last year, so show up and try to get an "honorable mention" in next year's newsletter.

CONFUSION

In the full-blown heat of middle day
He's looking for the sun
While racing from a nameless fear
He decides to run

He sits there in a flooded room
Drowning in the pain
Drenched and cold without a roof
And then he hopes for rain

His eyes are closed and he can't see
Sight is what he's looking for
A saving key lies in his reach
And then he locks the door
